7. The Committee may authorise the Vice-Chancellor or a sub-committee to deal with its functions under paragraph 5.

Constitution

Vice-Chancellor (Chair)

Deputy Vice-Chancellor

Pro Vice-Chancellor (Research) and Dean and Chief Executive of the School of Advanced Study

Deputy Dean of the School of Advanced Study

A Director of a member-Institute, to be nominated by the Directorate of the School of Advanced Study

Pro Vice-Chancellor (International) and Chief Executive of University of London Worldwide

An external member (holding an academic appointment at another university)

Mode of Operation

The quorum for the Committee will be three members.

¹ The Committee shall have no locus in respect of staff of the Colleges.

ORDINANCE 6 ANNEX 1

AUDIT AND RISK ASSURANCE COMMITTEE

Terms of Reference

1. To advise the Board of Trustees on the appointment of the External Auditors, their audit fees, the provision of any non-audit services by the External Auditors and any questions of resignation or dismissal of the External Auditors.
2. To discuss, if necessary, with the External Auditors, before the audit begins, the nature and scope of the audit.
3. To discuss with the External Auditors problems and reservations arising from the interim and final audits, including a review of the management letter incorporating management responses, and any other matters the External Auditors may wish to discuss (in the absence of management where necessary).
4. To consider and advise the Board of Trustees on the appointment and terms of engagement of the internal audit service (and the head of internal audit, if applicable), the internal audit fees, the provision of any non-audit services by the Internal Auditors and any questions of resignation or dismissal of the Internal Auditors.
5. To review the Internal Auditors' audit risk assessment and strategy; to consider major findings of internal audit investigations and management's response; and to promote co-ordination between the Internal and External Auditors. The Committee will ensure that the resources made available for internal audit are sufficient to meet the University's needs (or make a recommendation to the Board of Trustees as appropriate).
6. To keep under review the effectiveness of the risk management, control and governance arrangements, including reference to the Strategic Risk Register, and to review the External Auditors' management letter, the Internal Auditors' annual report, and management responses.
7. To monitor the implementation of agreed audit-based recommendations, from whatever source.
8. To ensure that all significant unbudgeted losses have been properly investigated and that the Internal and External Auditors, and where appropriate the Higher Education Funding Council for England (HEFCE) accounting officer, have been informed.
9. To monitor the University's policy on fraud and irregularity, including being notified of any action taken under that policy.
10. To satisfy itself that satisfactory arrangements are in place to promote economy, efficiency and effectiveness (value for money).
11. To receive any relevant reports from the National Audit Office, HEFCE and other organisations.
12. To monitor annually the performance and effectiveness of External and Internal Auditors, including any matters affecting their objectivity, and to make recommendations to the Board of Trustees concerning their reappointment, where appropriate.
13. To consider elements of the annual financial statements in the presence of the External Auditors, including the Auditors' formal opinion, the statement of members' responsibilities and the statement of internal control, in accordance with HEFCE's Accounts Directions.

ORDINANCE 6 ANNEX 1

14. In the event of the merger or dissolution of the University, to ensure that the necessary actions are completed, including arranging for a final set of financial statements to be completed and signed. In the event of major change to the University's constitutional arrangements, to monitor and keep under review, during any transitional period, the effectiveness of the risk management, control and governance arrangements.
15. To consider and deal as appropriate with other such issues or matters referred to it by the Board of Trustees or the Vice-Chancellor.
16. To report to the Board of Trustees and make recommendations to the Vice-Chancellor as appropriate.

Reporting Procedures

17. Reports of the Committee's work will be circulated to the Board of Trustees.
18. The Committee will prepare an annual report covering the University's financial year and any significant issues up to the date of preparing the report. The report will be addressed to the Board of Trustees and the Vice-Chancellor, summarising the activity for the year. It will give the Committee's opinion on the adequacy and effectiveness of the University's arrangements for the following:
 - 18.1 risk management, control and governance (the risk management element includes the accuracy of the statement of internal control included with the annual statement of accounts);
 - 18.2 economy, efficiency and effectiveness (value for money); and
 - 18.3 management and quality assurance of data submitted to HESA and to HEFCE and other funding bodies.
19. This opinion is based on the information presented to the Committee. The Audit and Risk Assurance Committee annual report should normally be submitted to the Board of Trustees before the members' responsibility statement in the annual financial statements is signed.
20. The Committee is authorised by the Board of Trustees to obtain outside legal or other independent professional advice and to secure the attendance of non-members with relevant experience and expertise if it considers this necessary, normally in consultation with the Vice-Chancellor and Chair of the Board of Trustees, as appropriate. It may incur reasonable costs in this respect, without the prior approval of the Board of Trustees.
21. The Audit and Risk Assurance Committee will review the audit aspects of the draft annual financial statements. These aspects will include the external audit opinion, the statement of members' responsibilities, the statement of internal control and any relevant issue raised in the External Auditors' management letter. The Committee should, where appropriate, confirm with the internal and external auditors that the effectiveness of the internal control system has been reviewed, and comment on this in its annual report to the Board of Trustees.

At least once a year the Committee should meet separately with the External and Internal Auditors without any officers present.

ORDINANCE 6 ANNEX 1

Members of the Committee shall, if necessary, have direct access to the External and Internal Auditors. The auditors engaged to provide an internal audit service shall, if necessary, have direct access to the Chair of the Audit and Risk Assurance Committee.

Constitution

The Audit and Risk Assurance Committee which shall be appointed by the Board of Trustees shall comprise:

Up to four independent members of the Board of Trustees one of whom shall be appointed Chair by the Board of Trustees.

One Head of College.

At least one and up to two members with appropriate expertise, who must not be members of the Board of Trustees.

The membership should not include the Chair of the Board of Trustees nor any member with executive responsibility for the management of the University.

Mode of Operation

The Chair shall have the power to act on behalf of the Committee in case of urgency including, but not limited to, requiring the Internal Auditors to conduct special reviews for the Committee's consideration.

The quorum for the Committee will be three members of whom one must be an independent member of the Board of Trustees.

EQUALITY AND DIVERSITY COMMITTEE

Terms of Reference

- 1 To promote equality, diversity, accessibility and inclusivity among staff, students and users of the University, across all aspects of the University, including its public-facing functions, and in particular:
 - 1.1 To monitor developments in legislation and make recommendations to the Vice-Chancellor's Executive Group for any necessary changes required to policy and practice covering both staff and students.
 - 1.2 To develop and ensure implementation of the University's Equality Strategy and other related policies.
 - 1.3 To ensure that the University has access to appropriate professional and specialist advice on staff and student equality, diversity and accessibility issues.
 - 1.4 To make a single annual report on equal opportunities monitoring and developments in equality and diversity for both staff and students to the Board of Trustees, the report to be publicly available.
 - 1.5 To report and make recommendations to the Board of Trustees as appropriate.

ORDINANCE 6 ANNEX 1

Constitution

The Equality and Diversity Committee, which shall be appointed by the Board of Trustees, shall comprise:

An independent member of the Board of Trustees as Chair.

Representatives of University of London Worldwide, School of Advanced Study, the Senate House Library and any other student facing areas as appropriate.

The Director of Human Resources.

The University's staff equality and diversity adviser(s).

At least one senior member of the academic staff of the School of Advanced Study.

- 4.2 To approve the grant, or renewal, of leases of equipment space to third parties in the Stewart House computer suite for periods of over two years and up to and including five years.
- 4.3 To report to the Board of Trustees the re-designation from the operational estate of any property/properties that will be held for investment purposes, that is, held as an 'investment property', or that will no longer be held for investment purposes.

Monitoring of Approved Projects

5. To monitor estates-related projects approved by the Board of Trustees.

Other Estates Matters

6. To consider other estates-related issues or matters referred, or delegated, to the Estates Committee by the Board of Trustees.

Procurement Policy and Any Other Relevant Financial Regulations

7. To ensure that all proposals comply with the Procurement Policy and any other relevant Financial Regulations.

Reporting Procedures

Reports of the Committee's work will be provided regularly to the Board of Trustees.

Constitution

The Committee, which shall be appointed by the Board of Trustees, shall comprise:

Four independent members of the Board of Trustees, one of whom shall be appointed Chair.

One Head of College.

Up to three persons with the appropriate specialist expertise for the work of the Estates Committee.

In Attendance

Other persons whose knowledge and experience can contribute to the work of the Committee may attend meetings at the discretion of the Chair, but have no voting rights.

Mode of Operation

The quorum for the Committee will be five members, of whom two must be independent members of the Board of Trustees.

The Committee will meet no less than five times a year.

ORDINANCE 6 ANNEX 1

ETHICAL ACCEPTANCE OF DONATIONS COMMITTEE (EADC)

Purpose

The purpose of the EADC is to review potential donations referred to it, in accordance with section 5.14 of the Ethical Acceptance of Donations Policy. The EADC will be convened as required at the request of the Vice-Chancellor.

Terms of Reference

1. To evaluate the ethical and reputational risks of potential donations in accordance with the principles set out in sections 4.1 and 4.2 of the Ethical Acceptance of Donations Policy, with specific reference to:
 - 1.1 Section 4.1. To ensure the University's integrity, the acceptance of donations must adhere to the following key principle:
 - The University will not solicit or accept gifts that conflict, in their character or source, with the values or reputation of the University of London.
 - 1.2 Section 4.2. When deciding whether to accept a donation the University will consider, and be guided by, the following questions. If any of these questions cannot be answered satisfactorily, the University retains the right to refuse the donation, in accordance with the procedures outlined in the Donation Acceptance Policy. Would the donation:
 - Expose the University to undue adverse publicity or reputational risk?
 - Inhibit, unreasonably, the University from seeking gifts from other donors or stakeholders?
 - Contravene the University's Statute 21 on anti-discrimination or run counter to the University's 2016-19 strategy for diversity and inclusion?
 - Require the University to provide special consideration for admission to the University, or other special advantage, for the donor designate, their family or friends?
 - Require the University to deviate from its normal hiring, promotion or contracting procedures?
2. On reviewing the material provided, to advise the Vice-Chancellor if:
 - The proposed donation should be progressed.
 - The proposed donation should not be progressed. If the proposed donation should not be progressed the EADC must clearly state its reasons.
 - More information is required, specifying clearly what additional detail is necessary.
 - If the proposed donation should be referred to the Board of Trustees for its consideration. If the proposed donation should be referred, the EADC must clearly state its concerns.
 - There is any additional information that the Committee believes appropriate to consider in formulating advice to the Vice-Chancellor or Board of Trustees.

Constitution

In accordance with section 5.14 of the Ethical Acceptance of Donations Policy, the EADC, which shall be appointed by the Board of Trustees, shall comprise up to seven members, including:

ORDINANCE 6 ANNEX 1

Current or former members of the Board of Trustees, one of whom shall be appointed Chair by the Board of Trustees

A member of the academic staff of the University or of one of the Colleges of the University

A member with appropriate legal expertise for the work of the Committee

Other members as required with appropriate expertise for the work of the Committee

Members may meet more than one of the criteria listed above.

Mode of Operation

The quorum for the EADC will be three members, at least one of whom must be a current member of the Board of Trustees.

The Secretary to the EADC will be the Director of Development, or their nominee.

The Committee's Terms of Reference will be reviewed periodically, normally every three years.

Due to the inherent sensitive nature of the material contained in the Development Office screenings and of the Committee's discussions, more detailed procedures relating to the operation of the EADC are held by the University's Development Office.

INVESTMENTS COMMITTEE

Terms of Reference

1. In accordance with legislation and such general policy or other guidance as may be approved from time to time by the Board of Trustees, to exercise the Board of Trustees' powers of investment and report regularly to the Board of Trustees on the exercise of these powers, including the management of cash reserves.
2. In cases of urgency and at the request of the Vice-Chancellor, the Chair of the Committee and any two other members of the Committee may approve such action by correspondence as they consider necessary.
3. Having regard to investment criteria exclusively, to approve the annual dividend of the Unified Trust Fund and to advise the Board of Trustees accordingly.
4. To recommend to the Board of Trustees the appointment of any investment managers and the period, terms and conditions relating to any such appointments.
5. To consider and advise the Board of Trustees on all questions of general investments policy and performance and to report to the Board of Trustees.
6. To consider and deal as appropriate with such other issues or matters referred to it by the Board of Trustees or the Vice-Chancellor.

ORDINANCE 6 ANNEX 1

Constitution

The Investments Committee, which shall be appointed by the Board of Trustees, shall comprise:

Three independent members of the Board of Trustees, one of whom shall be appointed Chair.

Up to five persons with the appropriate specialist expertise for the work of the Investments Committee.

One Head of College on the Board of Trustees.

Mode of Operation

The Chair shall have the power to act on behalf of the Committee in case of urgency.

The quorum for the Committee will be three members of whom one must be an independent member.

REMUNERATION COMMITTEE

The Remuneration Committee shall undertake all aspects of its work in accordance with the Equal Opportunities Policy and Gender Equality Scheme of the University.

Terms of Reference

1. The Remuneration Committee, on behalf of the Board of Trustees, and in accordance with policies agreed by the Board of Trustees, shall:
 - 1.1 review the salary, emoluments, allowances and other financial benefits payable by the University to the Vice-Chancellor, or sums reimbursed to another employer for the services of the Vice-Chancellor;
 - 1.2 approve and review the salary, emoluments, allowances and other financial benefits payable by the University to the PVC (Op) and such other officers or employees of the University as the Board of Trustees shall determine.
2. The Committee shall receive annually from the Vice-Chancellor a report on the salaries paid to the Directors of Institutes, the Pro Vice-Chancellor (International) and Chief Executive of University of London Worldwide, the Pro Vice-Chancellor (Research) and Dean and Chief Executive of the School of Advanced Study, Directors, Professors employed by the University, and the administrative and other staff employed by the University on Level 10 of its unified grading structure.
3. The Committee shall approve severance payments to the staff whose salaries are reviewed or reported under paragraphs 1.1, 1.2 and 2 or where the severance payment or cost of severance exceeds £100,000 (other than in respect of ordinary pension sums).
4. The Committee shall consider and deal as appropriate with other such issues or matters referred to it by the Board of Trustees.

ORDINANCE 6 ANNEX 1

Constitution

The Remuneration Committee, which shall be appointed by the Board of Trustees, shall comprise:

The Chair of the Board of Trustees (Chair).

The Deputy Chair of the Board of Trustees.

One independent member of the Board of Trustees.

One Head of College on the Board of Trustees.

The Committee may co-opt an additional external member with appropriate specialist expertise in the field of remuneration.

Mode of Operation

The Chair shall have the power to act on behalf of the Committee in case of urgency.

The quorum for the Committee will be three. Independent members must form a majority of those present.

The Vice-Chancellor is not a member of the Committee, but may be invited to attend and participate in its meetings to advise the Committee as required on his/her direct reports. The Vice-Chancellor, the Secretary and any other officer or member attending shall not be present when their remuneration and terms and conditions of employment are being considered.

The Secretary to the Board of Trustees shall be Secretary to the Remuneration Committee.

SAFETY COMMITTEE

Terms of Reference

1. The Safety Committee reports to the Board of Trustees and is established to advise, keep under review, and, take action as appropriate, on the general safety policy, organisation and arrangements to secure the health and safety of employees, Students, visitors and others who may be affected by the University's activities.
