What our priorities are and how we are doing

The University publishes a wide range of information relating to its strategies and plans, performance indicators, audits, inspections and reviews.

Within the governance structure of the University it is the Collegiate Council, chaired by the Vice Chancellor and comprising the 17 Heads of College and the Dean of the School of Advanced Study, which has responsibility, on behalf of the Board of Trustees, for the determination of academic strategy and policy and for the discharge of academic affairs. To find out more view our academic quality pages.

The University has links with many employers and business organisations. Details of our Member Colleges and Institutes can be found on our website. The Careers Group is the largest higher education careers service in the UK.
