   b. Rachel Knight (Postgraduate student member)
   c. Professor Della Freeth (Chair of Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards Panel)

2210. The Chair reminded the Committee that due to the University of London’s commitment to environmental sustainability, the International Academy is taking active steps to reduce the amount of printing completed for committees. The default position for all International Academy committees is that only electronic papers will be provided to members. However, printed copies can be provided on request to Louise Devlin (Assistant Secretary).

2211. The Chair noted that papers AC 23/5 Exam Hall Security and AC 23/24 Chair of the Boards of Examiners meeting notes were circulated as late papers.

2212. The Chair noted that during the 2016-17 academic year, there were 109,311 examinations sat by 38,430 students, resulting in 7604 awards:
   - 764 firsts or distinctions
   - 4,891 upper seconds, merits, lower seconds, credits
   - 1,947 thirds or passes

   It was noted that these figures do not reflect October re-sits for the Undergraduate Laws programme, or remaining assessments and awards for 2017 calendar year programmes. A full list of awards made during the 2016-17 academic year, and 2017 calendar year, will be reported to the spring meeting of Academic Committee.

2213. The Chair also noted that following the successful launch of the MSc Professional Accountancy programme in 2016, 595 awards have been made in total so far. In 2016-17:
   - MSc Professional Accountancy (Pathway 1) – 12 awards
   - MSc Professional Accountancy (Pathway 2) – 461 awards
   - Postgraduate Certificate in Professional Accountancy – 1 award

   It was further noted that for the two 2017 sessions there are a total of 2491 active students.

2214. The Chair provided an update on the Global MBA programme, which launched in April 2017. Across all three intakes there are currently 169 registered students. Although no students can complete the MBA yet, the Chair noted that results so far are very encouraging, with a provisional median pass rate percentage of 80.65 and average pass rate percentage of 77.2, across all modules which were available in the April to September study session.

2215. The Chair also noted that the Chartered Management Institute (CMI), a professional accreditation body associated with the Global MBA, conducted their first moderation exercise on 13 October and were satisfied with their review, both in terms of the content of the assessments and the standard of student's work.

2216. The Chair gave an overview of academic priorities for 2017-18. In line with the International Academy’s Operating and Strategic Plans, work continues on scoping and developing a range of new programmes. This includes programmes proposed directly from Member Institutions as well as potential programmes proposed by the International Academy. Ongoing developments include:

- Postgraduate programmes in Data Science, Global Supply Chain Management and International Sports Management
- A doctoral programme
- A new undergraduate programme in Computer Science
- Several current programmes (UG Laws, EMFSS suite) are in the process of re-developing key features and/or key modules.
- Postgraduate Certificate in Learning and Teaching in Higher Education will launch in 2018. This has been designed principally to enhance the knowledge, understanding, and skill of institutional and online tutors supporting University of London International Programme students.

2217. The Chair provided the following update on the University of London’s Massive Open Online Courses (MOOCs):

- In partnership with Coursera, the University has launched 35 MOOCs to date and registered 1.4 million learners.
- Under its 2017 strategy, nine new MOOCs are under development,
  - ‘Virtual Reality’ Specialisation of five MOOCs (Goldsmiths)
  - Introduction to who wrote Shakespeare? (Goldsmiths)
  - Corporate Strategy (UCL)
  - Probability and Statistics (UoL)
  - Global Citizenship (SOAS)
- The University continues to monitor the number of students (so far, over 1000) who have registered on a MOOC and subsequently registered on a programme within the International Programmes. A project looking at this area has been commissioned by the Centre for Distance Education (CDE).

2218. A member requested further detail on the scale of the University of London’s MOOC operation, particularly in comparison to other providers. It was agreed that a report would be submitted to the next meeting to provide further context.

2219. The Chair provided an update on the imminent rebranding of the International Academy and International Programmes, which at the time of the meeting had received approval from Collegiate Council and was awaiting final approval from the Board of Trustees. It was agreed that a summary paper on the background to the rebranding exercise will be shared with members.

2220. The Chair noted that the 2017-18 International Programmes Student Experience Survey will run over 6 week periods for each programme between the end of October and mid-January. Updates on this activity will be provided from the February meeting onwards.
TERMS OF REFERENCE, CONSTITUTION AND MEMBERSHIP FOR THE ACADEMIC COMMITTEE AND ITS SUB-COMMITTEES (AC 23/1)

Received

2221. Paper AC 23/1 Terms of Reference, Constitution and Membership for the Academic Committee which were approved by the Chair of the Board of the University of London International Academy; the updated committee structure for 2017-18; and the Terms of Reference, Constitution and Membership for the Sub-Committees of the Academic Committee

Noted

2222. That the following corrections to the Terms of Reference were required:
- Page 4 Professor Richard Jackman is now Academic Director, no longer ‘Interim’.
- Page 22 should be titled ‘Terms of Reference for the Assessment Quality Panel’, not the ‘Student Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards Panel’.
- Page 32 (Constitution and Membership for the LPB Examinations Panel, 2017-2018); Professor Wayne Morrison is Professor of Law at Queen Mary, not Royal Holloway. It should also be noted that he is Chair of the LLB Examination Board there.

MINUTES

Received

2223. Minutes of the twenty-second meeting of the Academic Committee held on 19 May 2017 (AC 23/2).

Noted

2224. That minute 1969 of the action sheet refers to item 25 of the AC23 agenda. This should refer to item 26.

Agreed

2225. That the minutes of the twenty-second meeting of the Academic Committee, held on 19 May 2017, be approved.

MATTERS FOR DISCUSSION

Inclusive Practice Policy and Solutions

Received

2226. Papers AC 23/3a (Inclusive Practice Policy) and AC 23/3b (Inclusive Practice Solutions) were presented to the Academic Committee by Nic Charlton, Learning Technologist, International Academy.

Noted

2227. That Academic Committee previously endorsed the development of a Virtual Learning Environment (VLE) Inclusive Practice Policy at its October 2016 meeting. The International Academy Learning Technology Team and colleagues have since developed the policy, which was discussed and subsequently approved, with minor amendments, by the Inclusive Practice Panel in September 2017.

2228. That a solutions document has also been developed, and this will be shared with stakeholders that have responsibility for or interaction with University of London International Programmes VLEs. The document is intended to act as a guide to ensure content is accessible and provides simple, clear and concise instructions for different user needs.

2229. Members welcomed the document noting that it was a well-developed guide that academics would find useful when developing materials for the VLE.

2230. In reflecting on the stakeholder groups identified in the policy, a member suggested that it may also be beneficial to consider consultation with representatives from visual and/or hearing loss charities.

2231. A member asked how quickly Member Institutions would expect to implement the guidance in the Inclusive Practice Policy. The learning technologist informed members that implementation is seen as a long-term process, and that it was hoped that positive outcomes would be seen within the next two years. It was noted that new content would be the initial priority, with a plan in place to bring existing content up to standard, with non-compliance addressed on a case by case basis.

2232. That the Inclusive Practice Policy will be shared with students, who are also content creators in some contexts, so that they have an understanding of what to expect from the VLE in terms of Accessibility.

2233. A member queried whether the Inclusive Practice Policy would become an integral part of the programme approval process. It was noted that although this matter had not been specifically addressed at the time of the meeting, there was an expectation that this would be the case in the future.

Agreed

2234. That the Inclusive Practice Policy and Solutions documents be approved.

Accessibility Survey and VLE Review 2016-17

Received

2235. Paper AC 23/3c Accessibility Survey and VLE Review 2016-17 was presented to the Academic Committee by Nic Charlton, Learning Technologist, International Academy.

Noted

2236. That analysis of the Student Experience Survey in 2015-16 resulted in a proposal to address inconsistency in programme VLEs through the Annual Programme Planning and Review (APPR) process, and a review methodology was developed by the Learning Technology team. This included a list of criteria that all VLEs should meet, and identified areas for improvement that Member Institutions could consider.

2237. That the VLE Review was conducted alongside an Accessibility survey, which asked Programme Directors about their learning materials, and how accessible they were for disabled students, or students with learning difficulties.

2238. That the VLE Review will be conducted annually, and the Accessibility survey will be running again in 2018-19 to allow comparisons and to measure improvements in VLE accessibility.

2239. A student member informed the Committee that the Student Voice Group had previously noted many differences between programmes’ VLE provision. The learning technologist confirmed that one of the aspirations of these processes, and the production of the Solutions document, was to address this variability and that the identification of good practice will be cascaded with the aim of raising the standard across the board.
2240. A member asked the learning technologist for reflections on why Q12 of the accessibility survey, which asked Programme Directors if they would be interested in developing a section on the VLE specifically on accessibility and inclusive practice and received a number of negative responses. It was acknowledged that time is a limited resource for programme teams, but that issues such as this have been addressed in follow up meetings and that working together much has been achieved in a short time.

2241. That thanks be recorded on behalf of Academic Committee and the Inclusive Practice Panel to the Learning Technology team for their work on improving accessibility within the VLE.

Guidelines for Examinations

Received

2242. Paper AC 23/4 Guidelines for Examinations 2017/18 was presented to the Academic Committee by the Director of Student Services.

Noted

2243. That the Chairs of the Boards of Examiners considered the amendments to the Guidelines for Examinations for 2017-18, including the replacement of Aegrotat award provision in the General Regulations with a new section ‘Awards in exceptional circumstances’ providing Boards with appropriate flexibility. The Chairs were supportive of the amendments.

Agreed

2244. That the Guidelines for Examinations 2017/18 be approved.

Examination Hall Security [Reserved Business]

[AC Minutes 2245-2254 are considered exempt from disclosure in accordance with Part II of the Freedom of Information Act 2000.]

Student Experience

Received

2245. The Associate Director: Student Experience presented an update on the work of the Student Experience team.

Noted

2246. That a Digital Student Experience Manager has been appointed to take forward the ‘My Digital Student’ project, building on research conducted by independent academic consultants to understand students’ digital expectations and improve the delivery of the services offered.

2247. That 67% of International Programmes students study with Teaching Institutions. An orientation pack has been developed to outline programme specific and student lifecycle information and allow institutions to more effectively support a student’s induction in-country.

2248. That members were shown rushes of a new welcome video, which is under development and which will be viewed by students when they log on to the portal for the first time, and a further short video welcome from staff of the International Programmes, delivered in a range of languages spoken in Stewart House.
2249. That further induction elements are also under development and will be made available within the student portal in an accessible and mobile-friendly format, featuring the ability to confirm whether a student has accessed the material, to ensure that as many students as possible receive the full available induction. This includes the development of soft skills induction module (time management, academic writing), which is the subject of a current Centre for Distance Education project.

2250. That students now have access to ‘Nightline’, an international service that provides students with access to pastoral support 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. Students will be informed about this service as part of their induction.

2251. Academic Committee welcomed clear evidence of progress made to improve the student experience. Members recorded their thanks to the Student Experience directorate and suggested opportunities to further enhance, and make more inclusive, the welcome videos by including additional languages and considering the presence of member institution logos.

Agreed

2252. That the Student Experience directorate consider feedback provided by Academic Committee to further refine and improve the student welcome videos as they are finalised.

STATUTORY RETURNS

2253. The Chair requested that item 7 (Teaching Excellence Framework – AC 23/6) and Item 8 (HESA Return – AC 23/7) were presented in reverse order.

HESA Return

Received

2254. Paper AC 23/7 an update on progress made towards submitting a University of London International Programmes HESA return in academic year 2019-20 was presented to Academic Committee by Dr Linda Amrane-Cooper, Strategic Educational Consultant.

Noted

2255. That under Section 79 of the Further and Higher Education Act 1992, the University of London International Academy has been required to submit HESA data returns but has not traditionally done so and this situation is no longer acceptable to HEFCE.

2256. That a HESA Project Board is overseeing the identification and resolution of issues and establishing readiness for the submission of HESA student data returns from 2019/20.

2257. That a review of student data processes and practices has been undertaken and a number of key challenges identified in preparing the International Academy for the submission of a HESA return. This includes the requirement to verify entry requirements and collect further demographic data.

2258. That the submission of student data will be for UK students and as such not representative, applying to student body with particular demographic characteristics.

2259. The Chair further noted that the International Academy’s educational model is unique in the sector; many of the requirements of HESA do not comfortably fit this model.

2260. Responding to a question from a member, the Chair confirmed that Tribal, the provider for the SITS student management system used by the International Academy, are also part of ongoing consultations.
Teaching Excellence Framework

Received

2261. Paper AC 23/6, an outline of developments in relation to the Teaching Excellence Framework (TEF), was presented to Academic Committee by Dr Linda Amrane-Cooper, Strategic Educational Consultant.

Noted

2262. That this summer saw the release of the TEF2 awards for Higher Education providers across the UK. The majority of Universities took part, including some alternative providers. Based on centrally compiled data sets and a provider statement, the TEF2 assessment panels gave ratings of Bronze, Silver or Gold. It was noted that within the University of London federation the results were variable.

2263. To engage with the TEF exercise, the University of London requires the data sets that drive the judgements; Undergraduate progression and completion data, National Student Survey (NSS) data and Destination of Leavers in Higher Education (DLHE) data. The School of Advanced Study already submits the HESA student return but with no Undergraduate students, they do not currently generate the relevant TEF data, nor are they required to submit for the TEF.

2264. That following the submission of a HESA return in 2019/20 and subsequent participation in NSS and DLHE (or the Graduate Outcomes survey as it will become), the University of London International Academy will be eligible to submit a full proposal for a TEF rating in 2022/23.

2265. That as with HESA returns, participation in the NSS and the TEF carries with it potential reputational risk. 0.6% of students (UK based, ‘final year’) would be eligible to complete the NSS, and taking into account the NSS publication threshold of 50%, there is a danger of the International Academy’s story being told by an unrepresentative 0.3% subset of the student body.

2266. That, taking into account these concerns, the International Academy should consider how data is captured and what other data sources are available to tell the story of student experience in better terms than allowed by the NSS.

2267. That currently representations are being made to the Department of Education focussed on the uniqueness of the International Programmes’ model. While participation in the TEF is voluntary this is less of a problem; should it become compulsory the University of London will face serious issues and reputational risk.
