Finding Accommodation
2020-2021
“The student hall of residence really helped me fit in with the Parisian lifestyle. Meeting people from all over the world, but all being united with the French language. It was a great accommodation for my first year!”

Your guide to finding accommodation

By ULIP Student and Academic Services

The first step in discovering Paris is to find a comfortable and safe place to stay. Finding the right accommodation may take a bit of work, but we are here to help.

This guide outlines the student accommodation options available in Paris - halls of residence, private rooms and studios, hostels, living with a resident landlord, and flat sharing. We’ve also included essential advice on how to find accommodation, and how to organise the financial and legal details with your landlord or agent.

In the summer we will share practical tips to help you prepare for your move; including opening a bank account, organising health insurance, and finding financial support.

Bon courage et à bientôt!

Paris, your new home!

“Paris is always a good idea”, as Audrey Hepburn once said. Beautiful, diverse, and packed with great cafés, bars, markets, parks, and galleries, Paris has the advantage of being small enough to get around easily, but big enough to still be exploring new places and things to do by the end of your course. Explore some of our fun facts about Paris.

Heritage
- 37 bridges cross the Seine river, of which 3 are pedestrian and 2 are rail bridges.
- 550 Green Morris columns, also known as advertising columns (created in 1868).
- Did you know that l’obélisque de la Concorde, located just across from ULIP (simply cross the Seine), is the oldest monument in Paris?

Transportation
- 384 stations
- 16 lines
  - The busiest station is Gare du Nord, and the least frequented is Église d’Auteuil. There are 14 ghost stations.
- 37% of bike rides are velib
- There are about 1263 stations and 8693 velib bikes. Nowadays, you can also choose other providers: Gobee bike, Ofo or Obike.
- 9 Batobus stations
- Feel like a boat ride? The Batobus will take you from Beaugrenelle to Jardins des Plantes. Unlimited access for 40€ with Navigo pass.

Culture
- 137 museums
- Did you know that the famous Louvre museum houses 36 000 works of art?
- 12 000 terrasses
- of which 9000 outdoor terraces. Many options to sit down, relax, observe, socialise read and/or study.
- 756 book stores
- Not only do you have many book stores in Paris, but you also have 72 public libraries.

Nature
- 500 green spaces
- can be found throughout the City of Light. There are about 2300 hectares of greenery.
- The oldest tree in Paris is a ‘Robinier’ found on l’île de Saint-Louis, and was planted by the king’s botanist and arborist in 1601.
- 487 000 trees
- On Saturdays or Wednesdays a small farm sets foot in one of the city’s gardens. You might spot some goats mowing the lawn.
Find somewhere to live

Where

- Familiarise yourself with a Paris map and locate ULIP
- Do some research on areas/arrondissements
- Decide on your priorities (space, travel time, type of accommodation...)

Options

- Studio flat in private hall of residence (e.g. ULIP’s block-booking with Nexity)
- Individual private accommodation
- Flat sharing
- Living + working
- Room or studio at Cité internationale universitaire
- Private hostel for students

When

- Start planning early
- Apply as soon as possible for halls, CIUP or hostels
- Plan to visit Paris end of August - early September to view flats

Resources

- Contact the Student Services team for individual advice
- Contact current/prospective students on the Facebook group
- Search online on housing websites and use notice board at ULIP

Budget

- Set-up cost: please consider that you will have to pay a deposit as well as your first month’s rent and insurance
- Rent can include or exclude services charges and/or taxes
- Don’t forget to estimate your housing benefit
Where to live in Paris?

Paris is divided into 20 arrondissements (corresponding to the last two digits of the postcode – for example 75007 is called the seventh arrondissement). Like any city, some areas are more expensive than others, but generally the eastern side of Paris is more suited to a student budget. Take a look at the map below.

Researching online or asking current students on our Facebook group for advice on specific areas of Paris is a good way to decide where you would like to live. It is also sensible to check out local transport links (nearest Métro or RER station or bus route), to make sure that travelling to ULIP will be convenient and that you can explore the city easily and safely.

View what is available within walking distance from ULIP: ulip.london.ac.uk/our-campus
Generally speaking, the central arrondissements (HISTORIC CENTRE & LATIN QUARTER), where many of the landmarks and hotels are concentrated, are the most expensive.

The NORTH EAST is usually more accessible on a student budget. This is the area which has changed the most in recent years with a very multi-cultural population and numerous cafés and restaurants.

The outer arrondissements in the West and the South (NORTH WEST, SOUTH WEST and SOUTH) tend to be more residential, away from the hustle and bustle of the city.

HISTORIC CENTRE
Ie: Le Louvre, Palais-Royal, Les Halles, Place Vendôme
IIe: Bourse, Bonne Nouvelle, Sentier
IIIe: Le Marais, Temple, Archives, Arts et Métiers

How to decide?

Decide what your top priorities are: is it travel time? A specific area in Paris? Is space more important than price? Do you value privacy and prefer to rent your own apartment? Or would you rather have flatmates? Find below some information based on our recent housing survey so you have an idea where ULIPers tend to live.

Travel Time

A little over half of our students live within 20-30 minutes from campus. Paris is quite small, so if you feel like a challenge you can walk across Paris from North to South in just 2h15.

Area

Many of our students live in the North West of Paris (29%), closely followed by the South West (27%). Each area has its particularity, find what suits you.

Accommodation type

Almost half of our students live in Independent housing (studio, 1 bedroom apartments...), while 43% opt for flat sharing. It’s a personal decision.

Budget

The average rent for our students is 680€, however, as you can see in the graph, rent varies from one student to another. Visit bit.ly/2mYle2u to view the average rent for an apartment within 500 m of each Metro station.
What are the accommodation options?

The options below are not listed in any particular order. It is rather a list of options for all types of preferences and budgets.

1. RENTING A STUDIO FLAT IN A PRIVATE HALL OF RESIDENCE (Nexity)

   There are a number of private halls of residences in the Paris region, which include Nexity Studea nexity-studea.com, Les Estudines estudines.com, and Campusea campusea.fr. Halls usually offer small furnished studio flats, with a private bathroom and kitchenette corner. Rates start from €600 but note that these tend to be in the outskirts of Paris, sometimes quite a distance from Central Paris. Rates in more central locations tend to be closer to €900 per month.

   Halls of residences often ask for a guarantor with sufficient income and will not normally accept ULIP as a guarantor.

   ULIP has a special arrangement with Nexity Vivaldi whereby students can apply and sign the rental contract via ULIP, offering a hassle-free option for those who are considering halls. Please read the next page for more details.

2. RENTING INDIVIDUAL PRIVATE ACCOMMODATION (studio flats or a maid’s room)

   The availability and price of studio flats vary greatly based on the location. You can expect to pay from €700 to €1000 or more per month for larger studio flats in central Paris. A studio would usually be self-contained and include a bathroom and a kitchen or kitchenette.

   Maid’s rooms or chambres de bonne (small independent rooms) are located on the top floor of apartment buildings originally intended for families with maids. They are rarely more than 10sqm, and although some have been refurbished, they can be basic so you may have to share the toilets and/or shower with other occupants. This is an affordable accommodation option ranging from €500 to €650 per month.

“Whatever your choice of accommodation we are here to help.”

Claire Miller-Bersoullé, Head of Student, Academic and External Services
Nexity Hall of Residence

What is Nexity?

Nexity is a chain of private student halls. Since September 2018, ULIP has a special arrangement with Nexity, offering you a hassle-free option that will allow you to smoothly transition into the vibrant capital city of Paris. Priority will be given to new undergraduate students in the first place.

Where is Nexity located?

Nexity has several student halls of residence across Paris and its suburbs. As part of our special arrangement with Nexity, you can choose between two locations: the 12th arrondissement in Paris, or Vanves located just on the outskirts of Paris. It takes approximately 30 to 35 minutes from the university on the metro from either location. If you prefer a quieter environment, you may consider the Vanves locations. If you prefer to be near a livelier neighbourhood, you may consider the location in the 12th arrondissement. You can specify your preference, however please note that the apartments are allocated on a first come first serve basis. Please view our dedicated Nexity web page for further information: ulip.london.ac.uk/nexity

What type of accommodation is offered?

Flats are fully-furnished with a private bathroom and kitchen corner. Two types of flats are available. Type A flats are 16sqm at a monthly rent of approximately £750 and Type B flats are 22 sqm flats at a monthly rent of approximately £840. Rent will be paid in pound sterling to the University of London every month and will include electricity, water, internet connection and housing insurance.

How can I apply?

You will receive further information and instructions early May with a template of the lease. You will then need to set-up an account with UoL and then confirm your booking by paying a booking fee in early July. For further information please email contact@ulip.lon.ac.uk.
FLAT SHARING (colocation)

Parisian landlords can be reluctant to let their properties to groups of students but it is one of the most popular solutions amongst ULIP students.

The average monthly cost ranges from €500 and €800 per person.

Websites that specialise in flat-sharing:

- lacartedescolocs.fr
- appartager.com
- room4talk.com
- centralparisrentals.com*

*Many students rent through this website but note that the quality of the flats listed can vary from one location to another. We recommend that you check with the SU via the Facebook group

BlueStripe Paris offers all-inclusive serviced housing in shared and single rooms in shared apartments. Apartments are located in safe neighbourhoods within the city centre.

Although budget will be higher than for a flatshare organised independently, BlueStripe provide high quality amenities, fully equipped housing, high-speed Wi-Fi as well as reliable customer service providing support each step of the way, and 24/7 emergency assistance.

paris.bluestripeliving.com

LIVING + WORKING ARRANGEMENTS

Working for your landlord offers advantages as this gives you access to reduced (or sometimes free!) rent.

Flats are generally in good repair and if the landlord/family are French speakers it is a great way to practice your language skills.

Landlords could offer accommodation free of charge, or a reduced rent, either within their flat or in an independent studio or chambre de bonne. This might be in exchange for English lessons, housekeeping or baby-sitting.

“Our flat was handed down to us by ULIP students making the whole thing nice and straight forward! Flat sharing is a great way to make friends and feel at home in Paris.”

Frances McLoughlin, BA Graduate
Renting a room or a studio at the Cité Internationale Universitaire de Paris

Although applications from postgraduate students have priority, undergraduate students may also apply for a room or a studio in the Cité Universitaire complex, subject to availability. Prices in the Collège franco-britannique range from €575 to €654 per month for a single room.

For more information visit ciup.fr/en/houses/applying-for-housing/

Renting a room in a private hostel for students

Hostels are often in central Paris and are a cheap option for this prime location. Single and double rooms are available and meals are served in a refectory. Places are in demand, so we recommend that you contact them well in advance and you need to apply directly to the hostel that you are interested in.

Hostels often have a Catholic or Protestant affiliation but places are not allocated on the basis of your religion.

For more information and contact details visit Union Nationale des Maisons d’Étudiants unme-asso.com/vous-etes-etudiants-2/itemlist/category/45-paris.html. The Foyer Universitaire du Dôme (girls only) foyerdudome.com has a good reputation, but do not hesitate to investigate others.

“Private hostels are usually for woman only and can be quite strict on entrance and exit times, so whilst you might have less freedom to bring home friends or guests, they can be safe and peaceful places to stay.”

Catherine Duperray, Administrative Officer

When to look?

If you are looking for accommodation in a hostel, a hall of residence or the Cité Internationale Universitaire de Paris, we recommend that you apply months in advance. In regards to ULIP’s block booking with the Nexity Vivaldi residence, offer holders will be kept informed of relevant deadlines.

For other options, it is a good idea to start researching your options online as soon as you have accepted an offer. We then recommend that you travel to Paris to view accommodation. Try to give yourself plenty of time to explore options and inspect them properly, we suggest five days at least.

For students starting their course at the end of September or October, we recommend that you come to Paris as early as the end of August or early September in order to have a good choice of offers. (Please bear in mind that many Parisians are away on holiday in August so it will be difficult to get in contact with people until the end of the month.)

You’ll need somewhere to stay whilst you look for accommodation. Here are some options for short visits:

Information on affordable short-stay youth hostels, organisations and hotels is available on en.parisinfo.com

WORD OF MOUTH RECOMMENDATIONS FROM OTHER STUDENTS

Most of our new students find their housing by getting recommendations from current ULIP students. This is a good method and quite reliable, because you can get invaluable information on the landlord, the neighbours, the general safety of the area, and the soundness and suitability of the property.

Visit the student group on Facebook to contact current students:
https://www.facebook.com/groups/738030376690149/

“Our Students’ Union has set up a Facebook group to make it easier for you to get in touch with current students. It’s a great way to get advice and recommendations on accommodation.”

3 USEFUL ADDRESSES

CEP Entraide Etudiants - non-profit organisation that helps students under 26 find accommodation for a small fee (€20 when you register, which is valid for the whole academic year, and €25 when you find an accommodation). You must rent for a minimum of 4 months.

en.parisinfo.com
ACCOMMODATION AGENCIES

Although agencies charge a fee they are worth considering, especially if you are thinking of staying in the same flat for a long period. Dealing with a high-street agency will also offer basic legal protection that can be helpful and give you peace of mind.

The following agencies have been recommended by former students:

- en.parisrental.com – Anne Millet (anne.millet@parisrental.com)
- paris-housing.com - Frédéric Dupont (f.dupont@paris-housing.com)
- apartofparis.com – Ruth Tchaparian (r.tchaparian@apartofparis.com)
- cosyhome-paris.net

Other reputable agencies include:

- laforet.com
- foncia.com
- orpi.com
- century21.fr

IMPORTANT ADVICE!

Whilst most people you deal with will be reputable, there are unfortunately some common scams to be aware of. Unless the source is reliable, we strongly recommend that you…

- Do not pay any agency fees before you’ve visited a property and signed the contract.
- Make sure that you visit a property in person, as photos and advertising can be deceptive!
- Do not make any payments to book or reserve a flat in advance of seeing it. This includes ‘secured’ cash deposits at the Post Office or Western Union as this is a common internet scam.
- Never pay an agent for showing you around a property, or selling you a list of ‘housing offers’.
Understanding French property advertisements

- Loyer = Rent
- Garant = Guarantor
- Charges locatives = Service Charges
- Caisse d’Allocations Familiales (CAF) = Financial support
- Taxes d’habitation = Council tax
- Dossier = file, in this case containing the documents listed on the next page
- Proprio = Propriétaire = Landlord

CC= Charges comprises

Loyer CC, charges comprises means that rent includes service charges.

TTC= Toutes Taxes Comprises

Loyer TTC, means that rent includes all taxes, including utility bills and services charges. If charges are excluded -> HT, Hors taxe.

Ancien

Meaning old, all properties built before 1948 are classed as ‘old’.

Récent

Meaning recent, all properties built after 1948.

Etat neuf

Meaning “as new”, all properties built after 1948.

Chambre de Service / Chambre de bonne

Is located outside the main apartment. A “Chambre Indépendante”, on the other hand, is an independent room located inside the apartment with access to its own bathroom/toilet.

Studio apartment

Has a main room with a kitchenette, and bathroom/toilet. A flat described as “T1” or “F1” has a separate kitchen.

T or F + # = # Rooms

T or F followed by a number (F2, F3, etc) indicates the number of rooms (living room + bedrooms), not including bathroom, kitchen and toilet.

Kitch

Refers to kitchenette in a corner of the main room, not an actual kitchen.

Vide ou Meublée

Meaning unfurnished or furnished apartment respectively, which may have an impact on price and lease details.

contact@ulip.lon.ac.uk
How to prepare a dossier

When looking for apartments, the agency or landlord may require a dossier which is a file consisting of the following elements:

- A photocopy of your ID (carte de séjour, passport, etc.)
- Proof of student status (e.g. pre-enrolment certificate from ULIP)
- Documentation from your guarantor (please view information below)
- You might need the last three receipts of rent payment from your last landlord, whether or not that rental was in France

Guarantor

Depending on the type of accommodation you are looking for, a guarantor (garant or caution) will almost always be required. The guarantor must agree to pay your rent and charges if you do not pay.

If they do not accept ULIP as a guarantor, your guarantor will have to provide the following documents, which you are advised to bring with you when visiting flats:

- Copies of the three most recent payslips or latest tax return
- Proof of address (copy of latest utility bill)
- Copy of ID card, passport or driving licence
- Copy of employment contract or letter from the employer

“ULIP can act as a guarantor for ULIP students if your landlord wants a guarantor based in France. Our scheme has termination provision so can cover unpaid rent, but we cannot cover repairs or damages so your landlord might want a second guarantor as well. Please contact us if you need more information.”

Olivia Garreau, Administrative Assistant

Apartment Inspection

It is very important to inspect a property thoroughly before you sign a lease. We recommend you take pictures of the property before you move in as proof. You must be sure to note obvious problems in the accommodation. Whenever possible, we recommend that you take someone else with you; it’s always nice to have a second pair of eyes!
Plan your budget

The damage deposit

The landlord will usually ask for a damage deposit (dépôt de garantie), usually equal to one or two months’ rent (excluding charges) in a furnished flat.

When you move out of your accommodation, if you have not caused any damage and have paid all outstanding bills, your deposit should be returned to you within two months. However, your landlord will be entitled to keep the deposit if you leave before the arranged date without giving sufficient notice.

“Make sure you ask for a receipt for your deposit. This is especially important if you are paying in cash but we recommend that you avoid paying in cash if possible”
Olivia Garreau, Administrative Assistant

Rent (Loyer)

Rent in Paris is more or less the same as in London, and higher than in many other cities. If you are looking for independent accommodation you should budget for between €500 and €1000 per month depending on the option you choose.

Rent is usually payable monthly, at the beginning of each month. The rent is due in full at the start of the month, even if you move out before the end of the month (unless you have a special arrangement with your landlord). Always ask for a rent receipt, called a quittance de loyer, which your landlord has to provide free of charge.

Service charges (Charges locatives)

On top of rent, you might have to pay your landlord an extra amount called charges locatives. This corresponds to the sum that the landlord has to pay for general building maintenance and routine repairs; for the lift, caretaker and other services; and for taxes and various local services. Always check whether the agreed rent includes or excludes charges. If you are paying a service charge make sure you know exactly what it covers.
Additional costs

Insurance

Household insurance is compulsory. All properties must be insured against water damage, fire and explosion. You may be asked by the landlord to hand in a certificate proving you insured the property. Household insurance can be taken out with specialist companies such as MACIF or AXA, or through your bank.

MACIF offers an insurance policy called PREM’S for single students under 30. The cost is currently €62 per year for a studio or one-bedroom flat. This includes legal liability cover (responsabilité civile), which covers your liability, for example, if someone injures themselves in your flat, or if you are involved in an accident.

For more information visit macif.fr

Council (local) and TV taxes

All tenants are required to pay a council tax (taxe d'habitation) for the flat they are renting on 1st January. This is payable in full in November, even if you moved out in the spring or summer. Sometimes (although this is quite rare) landlords will include the taxe d'habitation in the rent and pay it on your behalf. It is important to check with your landlord whether this is the case, and if not, how much the tax is likely to cost so that you can include this in your budget. If you have a TV in your flat you will also have to pay a TV licence fee (redevance TV), which has to be paid at the same time as the council tax.

Further information on council tax can be found at impots.gouv.fr

Please note the Council tax has been reviewed since last year and in 2021, students with no or low income should get full exemption. To benefit from this exemption students will need to declare their 2020 income in France in Spring 2021.

Other living costs

Always check exactly what is covered in your service charges, as you may need to pay for additional utilities such as heating, electricity or water. Other living costs such as transport and an allowance for food and social activities should also be considered when you are planning your budget.
Housing benefit for students (allocation logement)

If your name is on the lease, even if you are only spending part of the year in Paris, you are likely to be entitled to financial support from CAF (Caisse d’Allocations Familiales).

Please note that you cannot get housing benefit for your first month’s rent, and the amount you get depends on the type of accommodation and the area, so please keep this in mind when budgeting. In central Paris, students can receive up to €207 per month for a studio (private sector or halls of residence), €113 per month for a flatshare or homestay and €86 per month for a single room at the Cité U or in a hostel.

Housing benefit can be estimated via the CAF website: caf.fr

Example student budget

We recommend that you calculate your set up costs and estimate your on-going monthly budget to ensure that you can live comfortably in your new student accommodation. This is a mid-range budget for someone moving into a studio with a rent of €750 rent (without CAF benefit).
