Sessions and modules

There are two study sessions in a year, each lasting 22 weeks and followed by an assessment submission point.

Modules will run according to the timetable above (subject to minimum student registrations and availability).

In exceptional circumstances we may consider deferring a module to a later session, or offer a different module. in its place. We will inform you of any changes as early as possible and provide you with reasonable alternative arrangements.

Resitting an element of assessment

If you need to resit one or more elements of assessment for a module, you will normally be able to take the assessment(s) at the earliest in the following academic year. Please refer to the module running schedule for when you are able to resit your module(s).

If you resit one or more elements of assessment for a module, you will have to pay a module continuation fee when you register for the module. Visit Programme Regulations for full details.
