In addition to the Programme Fees payable to the University, you should budget for tuition costs if studying at a Recognised Teaching Centre.

You should also budget for the fee charged by your local examination centre. Examination centre fees are not included within the fees set out above. This fee will vary from centre to centre and you should contact your proposed examination centre(s) for details of their fees to factor them in to the overall cost of completing the programme. Using this link, you can find contact details for all our examination centres. The University of London is only responsible for the examination centre fee charged at London centres. You will be charged £81 per sitting when using London examination centres.

Goods and Services Tax (GST)

The University is required to add Goods and Services Tax (GST) to registration and module/course fees paid by students resident in certain countries. Further information can be found on our web page.

All student fees shown are net of any local VAT, Goods and Services Tax (GST) or any other sales tax payable by the student in their country of residence. Where the University is required to add VAT, GST or any other sales tax at the local statutory rate, this will be added to the fees shown during the payment process. For students residing in the UK, our fees are exempt from VAT.

When to pay

The non-refundable application fee is payable when you make your application. The closing date for applications is 28 September. If your application is successful, you will receive an offer inviting you to register.

The registration fee is payable in order to be registered with the University as a University of London student. The closing date for initial registrations is 26 October.

The assessment fee is payable when you choose to make an assessment entry. Assessment entries are usually accepted from mid-December to the closing date of 1 February (you will be notified of any change to this deadline).

Examinations take place in May or June each year. The assessment fee and dates also apply if you are re-entering for examination.

Business Administration (New Regulations) Fee Schedule

The continuing registration fee is payable in the second and subsequent years of registration at the time when you complete the continuing registration process. The closing date for continuing registration is 26 October.

Students progressing from the University of London's International Foundation Programme to study the BSc Business Administration programme at a University of London Recognised Teaching Centre will pay the Continuing Registration Fee, rather than the Registration Fee.

Transfer from CertHE

A transfer fee is payable if you complete the CertHE Business Administration and transfer to the BSc Business Administration. In the year that you pay the transfer fee, no Continuing Registration Fee is payable. The closing date for transfers from the CertHE programme to the BSc is 26 October.
