

UNIVERSITY OF LONDON

Schedule of Programme Fees* Divinity and Theology

* 'Programme Fees' mean fees payable to the University which include, where applicable, registration fees, continuing registration fees, module/course fees, dissertation fees and examination entry fees as indicated below.

2021–2022 session

The Programme Fees below refer to the 2021–2022 session and apply to students who initially registered for the programme in 2019–2020 or previous years only. These fees are effective from 21 February 2021.

Bachelor of Divinity
Module fee	£465
Recognition of prior learning application fee (per course)	£113
Diploma of Higher Education in Theology Certificate of Higher Education in Theology
Module fee	£465
Other fees (where applicable)
Late registration fee (non-refundable)	£105
See details below for costs you may incur with parties which are external to the University of London, for example, examination centre charges and locally imposed taxes. You should budget for these accordingly.

*The name of the Diploma of Higher Education and Certificate of Higher Education will be changing from 'Theology' to 'Divinity' from 2020–2021, subject to approval.

Additional costs

In addition to Programme Fees payable to the University, you should budget for textbooks (this may well be in the region of £150 per year if you are taking four courses in one year) and tuition costs (if studying at a teaching institution).

You should also budget for the fee charged by your local examination centre. Examination centre fees are not included within the fees set out above. This fee will vary from centre to centre and you should contact your proposed examination centre(s) for details of their fees to factor them in to the overall cost of completing the programme. Using this link, you can find contact details for all our examination centres. The University of London is only responsible for the examination centre fee charged at London centres. You will be charged £81 per sitting when using London examination centres.

Divinity and Theology Fee Schedule

Goods and Services Tax (GST)

The University is required to add Goods and Services Tax (GST) to registration and module/course fees paid by students resident in certain countries. Further information can be found on our web page.

All programme fees shown are net of any local VAT, Goods and Services Tax (GST) or any other sales tax payable by the student in their country of residence. Where the University is required to add VAT, GST or any other sales tax at the statutory rate, this will be added to the fees shown during the payment process. For students residing in the UK, our fees are exempt from VAT.

When to pay

The assessment fee is payable when you choose to make an assessment entry. Assessment entries are accepted from mid-December to the closing date of 1 February. Examinations take place in May or June each year. The assessment fee and dates also apply if you are re-entering the assessment.

The continuing registration fee is payable in the second and subsequent years of registration at the time when you complete the continuing registration task each year. The closing date for continuing registration is 30 October.

A non-refundable extension of registration fee is payable if you are permitted to extend your period of registration for a stand-alone Individual course. You may make this request throughout the year.

The dissertation fee includes entry to the examination for the dissertation and the supervisory support outlined in the dissertation subject guide.

If you fail the dissertation module and enter for a second or third attempt, the dissertation fee will be payable for each attempt.

If you choose to defer your dissertation module, resuming studies within one calendar year, the original dissertation fee may be carried forward. For dissertation deferrals of more than one calendar year, the dissertation fee is payable again. You may only choose to defer the submission of your dissertation once.

A non-refundable late registration fee of £105 will be charged if payment is not received by the deadlines specified for initial or continuing registration.

Composite fee structure

From 2021–2022, the programme will be phasing in a new composite fee structure. This will mean that fees will be paid on a modular basis, with each module fee inclusive of module registration and examination fee.

Method of payment

Please see: <https://london.ac.uk/applications/costs-your-course/how-pay-your-fees>

Please note

Programme Fees are subject to annual review and typically may be increased by up to 5% per annum.

Generally, students whose fees are paid by sponsors will be expected to correspond directly with their sponsor regarding Programme Fees. The University can provide an invoice, if needed, upon request. Materials will not be despatched and VLE access will not be available until Programme Fees have been received.
