When to pay

The application fee is payable when you make your application. The closing date for applications is 1 October. If your application is successful, you will receive an offer inviting you to register.

The registration fee is payable in order to be registered with the University as an International Programmes Student. The closing date for initial registrations is 30 November.

The examination fee is payable when you choose to enter an examination. Examination entries are accepted from mid-December to the closing date of 1 February. Examinations take place in May or June each year. The examination fee and dates also apply if you are re-entering the examination.

The continuing registration fee is payable in the second and subsequent years of registration at the time when you complete the continuing registration task each year. The closing date for continuing registration is 1 November.

An application fee may be payable if you wish to have prior learning considered for accreditation on, or transfer to, the degree programme. You may make this application throughout the year.

An extension of registration fee is payable if you are permitted to extend your period of registration for a stand-alone Individual course. You may make this request throughout the year.

The dissertation fee includes entry to the examination for the dissertation and the supervisory support outlined in the dissertation subject guide.

If you fail the dissertation module and enter for a second or third attempt, the dissertation fee will be payable for each attempt.

If you choose to defer your dissertation module, resuming studies within one calendar year, the original dissertation fee may be carried forward. For dissertation deferrals of more than one calendar year, the dissertation fee is payable again. You may only choose to defer the submission of your dissertation once.

*A late registration fee of £100 will be charged if payment is not received by the deadlines specified for initial or continuing registration.

Method of payment

Please see: <https://london.ac.uk/applications/costs-your-course/how-pay-your-fees>

Other costs

In addition to Programme Fees payable to the University, you should budget for textbooks (this may well be in the region of £300 per year if you are taking four courses in one year) and tuition costs (if studying at a teaching institution).

You should also budget for the fee charged by your local examination centre. Examination centre fees are not included within the fees set out above. This fee will vary from centre to centre and you should contact your proposed examination centre(s) for details of their fees to factor them in to the overall cost of completing the programme. You can find contact details for all our examination centres. The University of London is only responsible for the examination centre fee charged at London centres. You will be charged £65 per sitting when using London examination centres.

Goods and Services Tax (GST)

On 1 July 2017 a Goods and Services Tax \(GST\) was introduced in India which applies to online services. From 1 August 2019, the University will be required to add GST at the statutory rate of 18% to its programme fees for new and continuing students resident in India.

Please note

Programme Fees are subject to annual review and typically may be increased by up to 5% per annum.

Generally, students whose fees are paid by sponsors will be expected to correspond directly with their sponsor regarding Programme Fees. The University can provide an invoice, if needed, upon request. Materials will not be despatched and VLE access will not be available until Programme Fees have been received.
