What to pay

Where applicable, you are required to pay the following Programme Fees in full and in accordance with the University's deadlines:

- The module or dissertation fee is payable for each module or dissertation to be studied.
- An accreditation of prior learning application fee is payable by applicants who wish to have prior learning considered with a view to being exempted from taking a module.
- An examination resit fee is payable when entering to resit a previously failed module.
- A second Virtual Learning Environment fee is payable if you are participating for the second time (the fee varies depending on whether participation is for a module, for a re-written dissertation or for a new dissertation).
- An extension of registration fee is payable if you are permitted to extend your period of registration for a stand-alone Individual module.

When to pay

- The Programme Fees above refer to the 2018-2019 session only and are effective from 1 March 2018.
- The closing date for continuing registration and module fees is 31 August (or as soon as the results of any examinations taken in that year have been published).

Other costs

In addition to the Programme Fees payable to the University, you should also budget for the fee charged by your local examination centre. Examination centre fees are not included within the fees set out above. This fee will vary from centre to centre and you should contact your proposed examination centre(s) for details of their fees to factor them in to the overall cost of completing the programme. You can find contact details for all our examination centres. The University of London is only responsible for the examination centre fee charged at London centres. You will be charged £65 per sitting when using London examination centres.

Goods and Services Tax (GST)

On 1 July 2017 a Goods and Services Tax \(GST\) was introduced in India which applies to online services. From 1 August 2019, the University will be required to add GST at the statutory rate of 18% to its programme fees for new and continuing students resident in India.

Please note

Programme Fees are subject to annual revision and typically may be increased by up to 5% per annum.

Generally, students whose fees are paid by sponsors will be expected to correspond directly with their sponsor regarding Programme Fees. The University can provide an invoice, if needed, upon request. Materials will not be despatched and VLE access will not be available until fees have been received.
