

Schedule of Programme Fees*

Economics, Management, Finance and the Social Sciences (EMFSS)

Member Institution: London School of Economics and Political Science (LSE)

* 'Programme Fees' mean fees payable to the University which include, where applicable, registration fees, continuing registration fees, module/course fees, dissertation fees and assessment entry fees as indicated in the table below. Please see below the paragraph entitled "Additional Costs" for information about other expenses.

Important: the table below does not include fees payable to a third party, such as tuition costs payable to a Recognised Teaching Centre or fees charged by your local examination centre, or local VAT, Goods or Services Tax \(GST\) or sales tax. Please see below for further information about additional costs you may be required to pay.

Fees payable 2022-2023 session

The Programme Fees below refer to the 2022-2023 session only and are effective from 25 January 2022.

Students who first registered with University of London from 2020-21 must be registered at a Recognised Teaching Centre.

The following fees apply for students first registered on a programme in 2017-18 or after:

Students first registered on a programme in 2020-21 or after must be registered at a Recognised Teaching Centre. ### Additional costs

In addition to the Programme Fees payable to the University, you should budget for textbooks (this may well be in the region of [£300 per year if you are taking four courses in one year]) and for the fee charged by your local examination centre. Examination centre fees are not included within the fees set out above. This fee will vary from centre to centre and you should contact your proposed examination centre(s) for details of their fees to factor them in to the overall cost of completing the programme. You can find contact details for all our examination centres on the website. The University of London is only responsible for the examination centre fee charged at London centres. You will be charged £87 per sitting when using London examination centres.

You should also budget for tuition costs if studying at a recognised teaching centre. Students who first registered with University of London from 2020-21 must be registered at a Recognised Teaching Centre.

Goods and Services Tax (GST)

The University is required to add Goods and Services Tax (GST) to certain fees paid by students resident in certain countries. Further information can be found on our web page.

All student fees shown are net of any local VAT, Goods and Services Tax (GST) or any other sales tax payable by the student in their country of residence. Where the University is required to add VAT, GST or any other sales tax at the local statutory rate, this will be added to the fees shown during the payment process. For students resident in the UK, our fees are exempt from VAT.

When to pay

The non-refundable application fee is payable when you make your application. The closing date for applications is 1 October. If your application is successful, you will receive an offer inviting you to register.

The registration fee is payable in order to be registered as a University of London student. The closing date for initial registrations is 1 November for the CertHE in Social Sciences, BSc degree and the Graduate Diploma.

The assessment fee is payable when you choose to enter for a written examination. Examination entries are accepted from mid-December to the closing date of 1 February. Examinations take place in May or June each year. The assessment fee and dates also apply if you are re-entering the examination. Students invited to the resit session in October/November will receive separate instructions about how to pay their examination re-sit fee and the entry deadline with their invite.

The continuing registration fee is payable in the second and subsequent years of registration at the time when you complete the continuing registration process. The closing date for continuing registration is 1 November.

A non-refundable fee may be payable if you wish to make an application for (discretionary) recognition of prior learning.

*A non-refundable late registration fee of £110 will be charged if payment is not received by the deadlines specified for initial or continuing registration.

An additional fee is payable for each Law course that is chosen. The closing date for registrations is 1 November.

How to pay

Details on how to pay your fees are available on the website.

Your payment provider may apply additional transaction fees, including in respect of any refunds. (If in doubt, please check with them before making a payment.) Further information about fee payment options can be found in the link above.

Generally, students whose fees are paid by sponsors will be expected to correspond directly with their sponsor regarding Programme Fees. The University can provide an invoice, if needed, upon request. VLE access will not be available until Programme Fees have been received.

Fee increases

Programme Fees are subject to annual revision and typically may be increased by up to 5% per annum.
