See below for costs you may incur with parties which are external to the University of London, for example, examination centre charges and locally imposed taxes. You should budget for these accordingly.

When to pay

Fees may be paid in one of the following ways:

Either

1. A single payment when you initially register for the programme covering all module fees for the MA degree, PGDip or PGCert or for a stand-alone Individual module. The deadline for payment in this way is:
  - 2 September 2019 if you wish to start your studies in September; or
  - 14 January 2020 if you wish to start your studies in February.

Or

2. At your initial point of registration, the fee for the modules that you wish to study in that study session. To be registered, you must pay the fee for at least one module. In subsequent study sessions, only the fees for any new modules are payable. Students who choose to pay in this way must pay the relevant fees by:
  - 2 September 2019 for the September study session; or
  - 14 January 2020 for the February study session.

The core or elective module fee is payable once per module (except in the case of a second deferral or a restarted module) and includes, as applicable and subject to the regulations, the first attempt at the examination and two attempts at coursework and e-tivities.

The dissertation module fee includes the first and second submission of the dissertation proposal and the first submission of the dissertation thesis.

Additionally, where applicable and subject to the regulations, you may be required to pay:

- An examination resit fee when entering for an examination to resit a previously failed module.
- A dissertation thesis resubmission fee to resubmit a previously failed dissertation thesis.
- A second deferral fee for the dissertation thesis is payable when you submit a thesis on a second occasion, having already deferred submission of the dissertation thesis on a first occasion and having obtained permission to defer submission on a second occasion.
- An extension of registration fee is payable if you are permitted to extend your period of registration for a stand-alone Individual module.
- A new module fee if you restart a module having failed it, having failed to complete it or having deferred it on a second occasion.

Examination centre fees

In addition to the Programme Fees payable to the University, you should also budget for the fee charged by your local examination centre. Examination centre fees are not included within the fees set out above. This fee will vary from centre to centre and you should contact your proposed examination centre(s) for details of their fees to factor them in to the overall cost of completing the programme. Using this link, you can find contact details for all our examination centres. The University of London is only responsible for the examination centre fee charged at London centres. You will be charged £70 per sitting when using London examination centres.

Goods and Services Tax (GST)

The University is required to add Goods and Services Tax (GST) to registration and module/course fees paid by students resident in certain countries. Further information can be found on our web page.

All programme fees shown are net of any local VAT, Goods and Services Tax (GST) or any other sales tax payable by the student in their country of residence. Where the University is required to add VAT, GST or any other sales tax at the local statutory rate, this will be added to the fees shown during the payment process. For students resident in the UK, our fees are exempt from VAT.

How to pay

Please see: Payment methods for Postgraduate fees.

Please note

The 2019–2020 Programme Fees are valid from June 2019. Programme Fees are subject to annual revision and typically may be increased by up to 5% per annum. If the fees are revised the new fees will take effect from June 2020.

Generally, students whose fees are paid by sponsors will be expected to correspond directly with their sponsor regarding Programme Fees. The University can provide an invoice, if needed, upon request. Materials will not be despatched and VLE access will not be available until Programme Fees have been received.
