What to pay

Programme Fees may be paid in one of two ways:

Either

1. A single payment when you initially register for the programme covering the registration fee and all module fees for the MSc degree, PGDip or for a stand-alone Individual module. The deadline for payment in this way is 14 September 2019.

Or

2. At your initial point of registration, the registration fee plus the fees for the modules you select to study in the first year. To complete your registration, you must pay at the same time both the registration fee and the fee for at least one module. In subsequent years, only the fees for any new modules or the project, as applicable, are payable. Students who choose to pay in this way must pay the relevant fees by 14 September 2019.

The registration fee is payable in order to be registered with the University as a University of London Student.

The module fee is payable once per module and includes the first entry for the examination. It does not apply to the project module.

For the MSc, the project module fee includes the first year of supervision; first entry for the examination; and first submission of dissertation.

Additionally, where applicable, you may be required to pay:

- A resubmission of project dissertation fee is payable if you are resubmitting the dissertation.
- A fee is payable for continuing a project into a second or subsequent year with reduced supervision. A fee is payable for continuing a project into a second or subsequent year with full supervision. There is no fee for continuing a project into a second year and receiving the balance of remaining supervision on the same or a related topic.
- An examination resit fee is payable when entering for an examination to resit a previously failed module.
- An extension of registration fee is payable if you are permitted to extend your period of registration for a stand-alone Individual module.
- An administrative charge is payable for changing a choice of module after the registration deadline. A student will only be allowed to change their choice of module in this way in exceptional circumstances and with the approval of the Programme Director.

If you are permitted to transfer to the MSc from the PGCert or PGDip, you will not normally be required to pay a new registration fee for the degree, but you will be required to pay the appropriate remaining module fees as applicable.

Information Security 2019-2020 Fee Schedule

If you are permitted to proceed from an Individual module taken on a stand-alone basis to an award, you will be required to pay the relevant registration fee and the fee for the remaining modules.

Other costs

In addition to the Programme Fees payable to the University, you should also budget for the fee charged by your local examination centre. Examination centre fees are not included within the fees set out above. This fee will vary from centre to centre and you should contact your proposed examination centre(s) for details of their fees to factor them in to the overall cost of completing the programme. Using this link, you can find contact details for all our examination centres. The University of London is only responsible for the examination centre fee charged at London centres. You will be charged £70 per sitting when using London examination centres.

Goods and Services Tax (GST)

The University is required to add Goods and Services Tax (GST) to registration and module/course fees paid by students resident in certain countries. Further information can be found on our web page.

All programme fees shown are net of any local VAT, Goods and Services Tax (GST) or any other sales tax payable by the student in their country of residence. Where the University is required to add VAT, GST or any other sales tax at the local statutory rate, this will be added to the fees shown during the payment process. For students resident in the UK, our fees are exempt from VAT.
