

Schedule of Programme Fees*
Professional Accountancy
2020 sessions

* 'Programme Fees' mean fees payable to the University which include, where applicable, registration fees, continuing registration fees, module/course fees, dissertation fees and examination entry fees as indicated below.

The Programme Fees below refer to the 2020 sessions only and are effective from 25 September 2019.

Master of Science in Professional Accountancy; Postgraduate Certificate in Professional Accountancy.
Module fees for MSc and PGCert
Band A countries
Module fee for web-supported learning	£1475
Module fee for institution-supported learning	£1360
Band B countries
Module fee for web-supported learning	£1700
Module fee for institution-supported learning	£1585
Other fee (where applicable)
Module continuation fee (per continued module)	£680
See details below for costs you may incur with parties which are external to the University of London, for example, examination centre charges and locally imposed taxes. You should budget for these accordingly.

Indicative Programme Fees for the whole MSc and PGCert are given on the website.

Registration and module selection

- You must pay the fee for at least one module to be registered with us.
- If you wish to pay all the module fees for the PGCert (two modules fees) or the MSc (three modules fees for Pathway 1 or two module fees for Pathway 2) you can make a single payment by selecting all the modules for the MSc or the PGCert when you first register.
- When we receive your payment, we will give you a registration date that marks the beginning of your maximum five year registration period with us.
- When you pay for a module, you must select the module session in which you wish to study it (this selection can be changed before the module session starts).

Professional Accountancy Fee Schedule

- When the module session starts, you must keep to the University's published rules and deadlines for taking examinations and submitting coursework and projects.

What to pay

Where applicable, you are required to pay the following Programme Fees in full:

- The module fee is payable once per module and includes access to study materials and entry into the assessments (written examination, coursework and project, as applicable) associated with the module.
- The module fee is determined by:
 - a) whether you choose either institution-supported learning (where available) or web-supported learning, and
 - b) the country in which you reside when you register for each module (countries are classified into two categories Band A and Band B).

Note that if you choose institution-supported learning, you cannot also buy web-supported learning. However, if you continue to take the module in a subsequent session and pay the module continuation fee (see below) you will receive web-supported learning.

- The module continuation fee is payable when you do not complete a module in the session that you have selected, by the published deadlines, and have to do one or more of the following:
 - a) submit or resubmit a coursework or project element for a module that you have failed;
 - b) take or retake an examination that you have deferred or failed.

The module continuation fee includes access to study materials, web-supported learning and entry into the assessments.

When to pay

The Programme Fees above refer to modules which commence during the 2020 session only and are effective from 25 September 2019 when registration opens for the first module sessions to start in January 2020.

You must have paid your Programme Fees (module and/or module continuation fees) by the registration closing date for your chosen study session.

Other costs

In addition to the Programme Fees payable to the University, you should budget for textbooks (this may well be in the region of [£300 per year if you are taking four courses in one year]), tuition costs (if studying at a recognised teaching centre).

You should also budget for:

Professional Accountancy Fee Schedule

- the fee charged by your local examination centre. Examination centre fees are not included within the fees set out above. This fee will vary from centre to centre and you should contact your proposed examination centre(s) for details of their fees to factor them in to the overall cost of completing the programme. You can find contact details for all our examination centres. The University of London is only responsible for the examination centre fee charged at London centres. You will be charged £70 per sitting when using London examination centres.
- the fee charged for local tuition (where available) by your teaching institution if you take modules with institution-supported learning;
- your ACCA subscription as a student, affiliate or member. Your subscription with ACCA must be paid up to date when you register for the programme;
- the cost of the online preparation course, Keeping up with Change: Issues for the Finance Professional, for students taking Pathway 2 who completed their professional exams more than five years ago. The course is available through the Coursera website.

Goods and Services Tax (GST) (for students resident in India)

On 1 July 2017 a Goods and Services Tax \(GST\) was introduced in India which applies to online services. From 1 August 2019, for students resident in India, the University will be required to add GST at the statutory rate of 18% to its Programme Fees. This applies to all fees payable to the University, with the exception of examination entry fees on which GST is not chargeable.

Please note

Programme Fees are subject to annual revision and typically may be increased by up to 5% per annum.

Generally, students whose fees are paid by sponsors will be expected to correspond directly with their sponsor regarding Programme Fees. The University can provide an invoice, if needed, upon request. Registration on modules cannot be completed and VLE access will not be available until Programme Fees have been received.
