What to pay

Programme Fees are per module and are paid at initial or continuing registration. You are encouraged to complete within two years, (1st year: two core modules and dissertation part 1. 2nd year: four elective modules and dissertation part 2), but can take up to five years to complete the programme and pay per module when you register. Fees may be paid in one of the following ways:

- either a single payment, covering all module fees for the MA degree; or
- the fee for modules to be studied in the first year. To be registered, you must pay the fee for at least one module. In subsequent years, only the fees for any new modules or the dissertation (parts 1 and 2), as applicable, are payable. If you want to pay for modules as you progress through your studies, the following deadlines apply:
 - To start a core or elective module in October, you must register and pay for it by 1 October.
 - To start a core or elective module in March, you must register and pay for it by 1 March.
 - To start Dissertation Part 1 or Part 2 in February, you must register and pay for it by 15 January.
 - To start Dissertation Part 1 or Part 2 in July, you must register and pay for it by 15 May.

Please note: you can also register for dissertation modules at the same time as registering for core and elective modules, and we would recommend that you do this if possible.

Dissertation Part 1 includes Dissertation study periods 1 & 2 and submission of the research proposal.

Dissertation Part 2 includes Dissertation study period 3 and the writing up and submission of the dissertation.

Where applicable, you are required to pay the following Programme Fees in full and in accordance with the University's deadlines:

- The module fee is payable once per module (except in the case of deferral) and includes the first attempt at the examination.
- The dissertation fee (parts 1 and 2) includes the first submission of the dissertation.

Additionally, where applicable, you may be required to pay:

- An examination resit fee when entering for an examination to resit a previously failed module.
- A dissertation resubmission fee to resubmit a previously failed dissertation.
- A dissertation second deferral fee is payable if, having already deferred submission of the dissertation thesis on one occasion, it is agreed that you may defer submission on a second occasion.
- A new module fee if you start a module but do not complete your studies for it in that session. More information is available in the regulations.
