What to pay

Programme Fees may be paid in one of two ways:

Either

1. The Whole fee, a single payment, covering the registration fee and all module fees for the MSc degree, PGDip or PGCert;

Or

2. Modular fees, for the MSc degree, PGDip or PGCert, requiring payment of the respective registration fee plus the fees for the modules you select to study in the first year. To complete your registration, you must pay at the same time both the registration fee and the fee for at least one module. In subsequent years, the fees for additional modules are payable.

If we allow you to transfer from the PGCert to the PGDip or MSc, or from the PGDip to the MSc, you will have to pay a progression fee. Where you transfer between the PGCert and the MSc you will have to pay a double progression fee, as indicated above. This is in addition to the fees for the additional modules you will take under the new award.

Fees must be paid in full and in accordance with the University's deadlines. The module fee is payable once per module and includes the first entry for the examination.

To study Individual modules on a stand-alone basis you are required to pay a single fee upon registration. This fee covers registration and, as applicable, the first entry for the assessment.

Additionally, where applicable, you may be required to pay:

- An examination resit fee, which is payable when entering to resit a previously failed examination.
- An extension of registration fee, which is payable if you are permitted to extend your period of registration for a stand-alone Individual module.

If you are permitted to proceed from a stand-alone Individual module to the PGCert, PGDip or MSc in Livestock Health and Production or Veterinary Epidemiology and Public Health, you will be required to pay the respective registration fee for the award, and the fee for the remaining modules.

When to pay

- Programme Fees are payable at the same time that you register.
- Programme Fees for the 2020 session will be in effect from 1 March 2019 until 28 February 2020.
- For the MSc, PGDip and PGCert, 15 January 2020 is the closing date for both initial registration and for new modules.
- For CPD Individual modules, you can register throughout the year; fees change on 1 March.

Other costs

In addition to the Programme Fees payable to the University, you should also budget for the fee charged by your local examination centre. Examination centre fees are not included within the fees set out above. This fee will vary from centre to centre and you should contact your proposed examination centre(s) for details of their fees to factor them in to the overall cost of completing the programme. Using this link, you can find contact details for all our examination centres. The University of London is only responsible for the examination centre fee charged at London centres. You will be charged £70 per sitting when using London examination centres.

Goods and Services Tax (GST)

The University is required to add Goods and Services Tax (GST) to registration and module/course fees paid by students resident in certain countries. Further information can be found on our web page.

All programme fees shown are net of any local VAT, Goods and Services Tax (GST) or any other sales tax payable by the student in their country of residence. Where the University is required to add VAT, GST or any other sales tax at the local statutory rate, this will be added to the fees shown during the payment process. For students resident in the UK, our fees are exempt from VAT.

How to pay

Please see: Payment methods for Postgraduate fees

Please note

Programme Fees are subject to annual revision and typically may be increased by up to 5% per annum.

Generally, students whose fees are paid by sponsors will be expected to correspond directly with their sponsor regarding Programme Fees. The University can provide an invoice, if needed, upon request. Materials will not be despatched and VLE access will not be available until Programme Fees have been received.
