2. This document is a part of your Licence Agreement with the University and is therefore part of the contract between You and the University relating to the Accommodation. Terms which are defined in the rest of the Licence Agreement have the same meaning here. Additionally, "We" means the University of London including its authorised employees, agents and representatives, and 'Us' and 'Our' should be interpreted accordingly.
3. This Addendum should be read together with any special terms in your Handbook (including any supplement we provide with your Handbook), which will also form part of the contract between You and the University.
4. You should read these documents very carefully and if You do not understand them You should take advice from a housing adviser, a citizen's advice centre, a law centre or other legal adviser.

8. If We have agreed to provide catering this will be specified in the Particulars of Offer. This clause only applies if We have agreed to provide catering with your Accommodation. If for reasons beyond the control of the University which is any way connected to the COVID-19 outbreak, the University is unable to provide catering services in the Hall where your Accommodation is located, but the Accommodation is still otherwise habitable, We will make catering services available to You in another location. You agree that in these circumstances You will not be entitled to claim any additional costs for meals from the University.

Rules about terminating the licence agreement early

11. If We are required to close the Hall we will make every reasonable endeavour to find suitable alternative accommodation in property owned or managed by the University. We are usually able to find alternative accommodation, but if we close the Hall where you have been accommodated and we are unable to offer other suitable accommodation due to circumstances in any way connected to COVID-19, We may terminate your Licence by giving reasonable notice to You.
