

UK Visas & Immigration Documents | List A & B

The University of London has a legal responsibility to ensure that all its employees and workers have the legal right to live and work in the UK.

Documents which demonstrate an individual's right to work in the UK are published by UK Visas and Immigration in two lists – List A and List B. Where List B documents are provided, the University is required to carry out repeat annual checks every 12 months of where leave to remain expires. An original version of one of the specified documents from List A, or a specified combination of two documents from List B, must be presented before an individual begins work.
